

What you need:

- staples or needle and thread
- scissors
- aluminium bags of potato chips, etc.
- shoebox

How to make:

1. Eat the food.
2. Cut the bags open.
3. Clean the interior with a dry, clean cloth.

4. Cut the bags in thin and thick strips.

5. Save the pieces which are less beautiful for another job (in a shoebox).

6. Fold the thick strips and place around the ends together. Attach them in the middle with a staple or needle and thread.

7. Curl some streaks through it with scissors along ironing.

8. Decorate the curls around the middle and fix them again with a staple or a thread.

9. Fix some long strips on the back ... ready.

Tip:

Keep the rest of the material in an (old) shoebox. Collect during the year this type of material, you can make plenty of Christmas decorations.
